

Arabic Daily Online Support

Tuition Checklist

Some of the following items may not apply to you depending on whether you take home tuition lessons or if you take online Skype lessons.

Some of the reminders apply only to GCSE Arabic students and others are specific to Quranic students.

Have you...

- Sent us your Skype ID?
- Sent us a mobile contact number?
 - Sent us your email?
- Taken an Arabic assessment?
- Received bank details for payment and kept it somewhere safe?
 - Set up your bank standing order for the 1st of the month?
- Set a reminder for monthly manual bank payments, on your phone or calendar?
 - Read the online terms of tuition?
 - Set a reminder of your lesson times and days?
 - Allocated your homework and revision periods?
- Contacted your school to inform them that you wish to sit for GCSE Arabic exams? Speak with your tutor first.
 - Purchased your GCSE Arabic text books and dictionaries?
 - Purchased an exercise book to make notes and do homework?
 - Purchased a Quran after speaking with tutor?
 - Sent us a testimonial or feedback on improvements?
 - Followed us on Twitter or Facebook for updates?

This checklist may not be exhaustive but serves a reminder for some basic requirements.